The United Nations Development Programme notes that, as a share of world merchandise trade, South-South trade more than tripled between 1980 and 2011, while North-North trade declined. 3 While these trade trends slowed or declined in 2019, partly due to the trade wars unleashed by northern countries, the evidence is obvious that, for at least three decades, coinciding with the establishment of the WTO, the South grew exponentially in trade. It must be noted how, in both merchandise trade and ...

The WTO and the Sustainable Development Goals. The WTO is central to achieving the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and its Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which set targets to be achieved by 2030 in areas such as poverty reduction, health, education and the environment. The SDGs put significant emphasis on the role that trade plays in promoting sustainable development and recognize the contribution that the WTO can make to the 2030 Agenda.
